Timeline Debates

by Honeybees_n_flowers

Summary

A few months after Shane and Ilya's relationship is revealed, Twitter begins to speculate about the timeline of it all. Ilya fans the flames.

Notes

This fic and these notes contain spoilers for The Long Game!

I'm not sure if it matches the canon timeline, but for the sake of the story there are a few weeks between the wedding and Shane announcing his transfer to Ottawa

All usernames are my own creation, if they match actual accounts that is 100% coincidental

All credit for the twitter workskin goes to starskin's amazing tutorial found here!
If things aren't showing up properly, double check you have "Show Creator's Style" enabled Edit: The images are hosted on tumblr and imgur. I've been informed they aren't loading for some people, if this is the case it's likely that you live in a country where one or both of these sites are blocked. Using a VPN should resolve the issue!

Okay guys I know we've settled down a bit since kissgate but are we seriously never going to address the timeline

Shane Hollander @shanehollander · Mar 23

Although having the decision to disclose our relationship made for us isn't ideal, we would like to announce, officially, that we are in a committed, romantic relationship, and have been for several years. We wish we could have told you in our own way, but we don't hold this unfortunate accident against Hayden.

okay here's what we know:
- both of the them dated women until 2016ish at least
- at all stars 2017 they were on a team together for the first time and ilya kissed shane on the cheek after a goal
- they had been together for “years” as of March

I really think everything adds up for it to be 2017

I have been told there is speculation surrounding the timeline of my relationship with Ilya. I want to emphasize that at no point have our lives off the ice affected our abilities or competition on the ice. It isn't necessary to know the date of our first kiss to understand the important part: we love each other now, we have for a while, and we also love hockey.

So this means they were a thing for literally their entire careers then? Meaning they won the cup and knocked each other out of the playoffs multiple times while together, and nobody ever tripped on purpose… interesting…

It wasn't originally my plan to share this, but yes, I have been romantically involved with Ilya for the entirety of my career. To be clear, we were not always exclusive, and there has been no infidelity.

It is an honour to be with this amazing person, and challenging each other on the ice has always been one of the best parts of playing hockey for me. That being said, the only thing better than beating Ilya is winning alongside him.

I am so happy to officially announce that I have signed with the Ottawa Centaurs. See you in September 🏒❤️

Episode 6 emotionally destroyed me, I had to make something silly.
